

New PDU Category Structure and Policies

Each professional development activity yields one PDU for one hour spent engaged in the activity. The new six PDU categories fall into two divisions—Education and Giving Back to the Profession—as illustrated below.

EDUCATIONAL	GIVING BACK TO THE PROFESSION
Courses offered by PMI's R.E.P.s or Chapters and Communities	Creating New Project Management Knowledge
Continuing Education	Volunteer Service
Self-Directed Learning	Work as a Professional in Project Management

EDUCATION CATEGORIES
CATEGORY A: Courses offered by PMI's R.E.P.s or Chapters and Communities	Earn PDUs by attending educational courses offered by PMI's Registered Education Providers (R.E.P.s). These providers adhere to quality criteria established by PMI and are solely authorized to issue PDU certificates to attendees. R.E.P.s can be identified by their logo:  Examples of R.E.P.s include schools, consultants, corporate training departments, professional associations, government agencies and PMI chapters. View the searchable database of R.E.P.s and the courses they offer online. You can also earn PDUs by attending events (seminars, conferences, etc.) offered by PMI, PMI chapters and communities of practice. These event listings can be found on PMI's events calendar or on the websites of your specific chapter or the community of practice to which you belong. You can also earn PDUs by taking a PMI® Publication Quiz (reading an article and correctly answering at least 70 percent of the questions).
PDU Rule:	1 hour of instruction related to project management, project risk, project scheduling, or program management equals 1 PDU. You can report PDUs in 0.25, 0.50 and 0.75 increments.
Documentation required upon PMI audit/request:	Registration form, certificate or letter of attendance.
CATEGORY B: Continuing Education	Earn PDUs: - By completing an academic course being offered by a university or college OR - By attending relevant educational courses offered by training organizations NOT registered with PMI. This may include training (or a Webinar) offered by your employer, another professional or membership association, or a non R.E.P. training organization. When only a portion of a course relates to your credential area of expertise, calculate PDUs by the percentage of the overall curriculum focused on the topic. Report each course separately. Entire degree programs will not be recognized for PDU credits, only individual courses.
PDU Rule:	1 hour of instruction related to project management, project risk, project scheduling, or program management equals 1 PDU. You can report PDUs in 0.25, 0.50 and 0.75 increments
Documentation required upon PMI audit/request:	If an academic course: please provide the transcript or grade report indicating a passing mark. If a non-PMI REP or Community course: please provide the registration form, certificate or letter of attendance, and a brochure or course materials (syllabus) outlining the subject matter covered and the qualifications of the instructor/lecturer.

CATEGORY C: Self-Directed Learning	Earn PDUs for self-directed learning activities which are individualized learning events involving personally conducted research or study. Learning may include informal activities such as: • reading articles, books, or instructional manuals; • watching videos, using interactive CD-ROMs, Podcasts or other source material; • having formal discussions with colleagues, coworkers, clients or consultants; • being coached or mentored by a colleague, coworker or consultant (If you served as a coach or mentor to someone else, report that activity under the Volunteer Category) Qualifying activities must be relevant to project management, project risk, project scheduling, or program management, meet a specified purpose, and use knowledgeable resources.
PDU Rule:	1 PDU is awarded for every 1 hour spent in a self-directed learning activity listed in this category. PDU restrictions for the Self-Directed Learning category are as follows: • PMP and PgMP credential holders can earn no more than 30 PDUs in the Self-Directed Learning category per cycle • PMI-SP and PMI-RMP credential holders can earn no more than 15 PDUs in the Self-Directed Learning category per cycle
Documentation required upon PMI audit/request:	Evidence supporting your reported learning project, including notes from and dates of discussion or reading.
GIVING BACK TO THE PROFESSION CATEGORIES
PDU Rule:	You may not earn more than a total of 45 PDUs in the three "Giving Back to the Profession" categories per cycle if you hold the PMP and PgMP credentials. You may not earn more than a total of 20 PDUs in the three "Giving Back to the Profession" categories per cycle if you hold the PMI-SP and PMI-RMP credentials.
CATEGORY D: Creating New Project Management Knowledge	Earn PDUs for creating new knowledge for the topic related to your credential area of expertise (project management, project risk management, project scheduling, or program management). Qualifying activities include: • Authoring (co-authoring) a project management textbook • Authoring (co-authoring) a peer-reviewed article • Authoring (co-authoring) a non-peer-reviewed article • Authoring (co-authoring) an article for pmi's knowledge shelf • Authoring an article for relevant electronic newsletters • Authoring of article on an official organization, professional, or company blog • Presenting in a webinar • Presenting in a podcast • Creating a course or developing course content for project management related courses • Serving as a speaker or instructor for project management related courses and presentations • Serving as a moderator of a relevant discussion • Serving as a subject matter expert for a panel discussion Both the time required to prepare or create this knowledge and the time to present it can be claimed for PDUs. For example, when serving as a speaker, if a credential holder spent 7.5 hours to create their presentation and 1 hour to deliver it, this would count for 8.5 PDUs. The PDUs claimed in this category count against the maximum of 45 PDUs (or, 20 PDUs for PMI-RMP and PMI-SP) allowed for "Giving Back to the Profession" categories (Categories D, E, and F).
